FRIDAY APRIL 27
Location: Yale University Art Gallery

6:00 PM  Public lecture, followed by a reception and gallery open Globalization Comes to Japan: Curiosity and Suspicion in the Age of the Columbian Exchange and the Counter-Reformation
Professor Fabian Drixler, Yale University

8:00 PM  Dinner
Atelier Florian, 1166 Chapel St, New Haven, CT 06511

SATURDAY APRIL 28
Location: Classroom 4430, Evans Hall (a.k.a School of Management, 165 Whitney Avenue)

8:45 AM  Breakfast & Coffee
Outside of Classroom 4430, Evans Hall

9:00 AM  Welcoming Comments
Professor Mimi Yiengpruksawan, Yale University

9:15 AM  Sailing East to Nanban: Tokugawa Japan’s Trans-Pacific Vessels, 1600-1620
Joshua Batts – Columbia University

9:45 AM  Iconography and Style in Genre Painting after European Models in Momoyama
Japan
Washizu Katsura – Tokyo National Museum

Matthew McKelway – Columbia University

10:45 AM  Coffee Break
Outside of Classroom 4430, Evans Hall

11:15 AM  A Shopkeeper from Christian Nagasaki: Gotō Thomé (1547?-1627)"
Reinier Hesselink – University of Northern Iowa

11:45 AM  After Apostasy: Reacting to the Spiritual Crisis in Japan, 1630–1640
Liam Brockey - Michigan State University

12:15 PM  Lunch
Located in The Forum, first floor of Evans Hall
1:15 PM  Japanese Tea Ceramics of the late 16th – early 17th Century: Why do they look that way.
Louise Cort – Freer-Sackler Gallery

1:45 PM  Besides Baroque: the Portuguese Encounter with Wabi
Andrew Watsky - Princeton University

2:15 PM  Coffee Break
Outside of Classroom 4430, Evans Hall

2:45 PM  “Va, Can, ou, Can, Va” no “Livro do Royei”: A Type of World Poetry in Japan’s Global Baroque
Jeffrey Niedermaier – Yale University

3:15 PM  Music, Theater, and Painting in the Japanese Christian Missions
Alexandra Curvelo da Silva Campos – Universidade Nova de Lisboa

3:45 PM  Coffee Break
Outside of Classroom 4430, Evans Hall

4:15 PM  General Discussion

6:00 PM  Dinner
Union League Café, 1032 Chapel St, New Haven, CT 06510

SUNDAY APRIL 29
Location: Classroom 4430, Evans Hall

9:00 AM  Breakfast & Coffee
Outside of Classroom 4430, Evans Hall

9:30 AM  The Menagerie of Nanban: From Animal Tribute to Baroque Discourse
Drisana Misra – Yale University

10:00 AM  Dressed to kill: Momoyama Military Equipment
Anton Schweizer – Kyushu University

10:30 AM  Collecting the Global Baroque: Tokugawa Ieyasu and Japan’s European Entanglements
Morgan Pitelka – University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill

11:00 AM  Roundtable Discussion

12:00 PM  Lunch
Outside of Classroom 4430, Evans Hall