

DEMOCRATIC ACCOUNTABILITY AND FOREIGN POLICY COMMITMENTS IN ASIA

Friday, April 8, 2011

Henry R. Luce Hall Auditorium, 34 Hillhouse Avenue

3:30 PM

Registration

Henry R. Luce Hall Common Room

4:00 – 6:00 PM

SYMPOSIUM

Coping with Critical Challenges: Reflections on Japan's New Government

Panelists:

Nobuhiro Hiwatari (University of Tokyo)

Keisuke Iida (University of Tokyo)

Stephen Roach (Yale University, Non-executive Chair of Morgan Stanley Asia)

6:30 PM

Reception for conference participants

Henry R. Luce Hall Common Room

Saturday, April 9, 2011

Henry R. Luce Hall Auditorium

8:30 AM

Registration & Welcome Coffee

Henry R. Luce Hall Common Room

9:00 – 11:30 AM

PANEL I: East Asian Democracies in the International Context

Partisan Governments and Foreign Policy

Nobuhiro Hiwatari (University of Tokyo)

Alliance Commitment to East Asian Countries and US Party Politics

Atsushi Tago (Kobe University)

Red Light, Green Light: Autocratic Signaling and Anti-Foreign Protest in China

Jessica Weiss (Yale University)

11:45 – 12:45 PM

Lunch Break

Henry R. Luce Hall Common Room

DEMOCRATIC ACCOUNTABILITY AND FOREIGN POLICY COMMITMENTS IN ASIA

Saturday, April 9, 2011

Henry R. Luce Hall Auditorium

1:00-3:00 PM

PANEL II: Partisan Politics and Diplomacy

A New Approach to the Maritime Dispute Involving a Former Colonizer-Colony Pair:

The Case of the Dokdo-Takeshima Dispute between Japan and Korea

Hee Min Kim (Florida State University)

Partisan Turnover of the Korean Presidency and the North Korea Policy

Young-Geun Kim (Keimyung University)

Taiwan's Partisan Politics and Its Impact on the US-Taiwanese Relations

Yasuhiro Matsuda (University of Tokyo)

Politics of U.S. Bases in Okinawa: Electoral Politics and Diplomacy

Jun Saito (Yale University)

3:10-5:15 PM

PANEL III: Regionalism, Economic Interdependence and Domestic Politics

Partisanship and South Korean Foreign Economic Policy

Min Gyo Koo (Seoul National University)

Taiwan's Domestic Public Opinion and Its Relations with the Mainland China

Emerson Niou (Duke University)

Building an "East Asian Community" in Vain: Japan's Power Shift and Regionalism in the New Millennium

Hiroyuki Hoshiro (University of Tokyo)

5:30-6:00

WRAP-UP SESSION