

The Council on East Asian Studies Fall 2010 Japan Film Series
In conjunction with "Japanese Cinema before 1960"
(FILM 446/JAPN 270/LITR 384/JAPN 586)

All Screenings at 7:00 PM

SINGULAR SAMURAI

A series of samurai films slightly off the beaten track, featuring singing samurai, a samurai Cyrano de Bergerac, and even the samurai who inspired Star Wars, directed by such masters as Kurosawa Akira, Inagaki Hiroshi, and Kato Tai.

■ Thursday, October 7

Vendetta at Sozenji Temple (Adauchi Sozenji baba)

Directed by Makino Masahiro (1957, 16mm, 92min.)

Print courtesy of the Japan Foundation

Whitney Humanities Center Auditorium, 53 Wall Street

■ Thursday, November 4

Samurai Saga (Aru kengo no shogai)

Directed by Inagaki Hiroshi (1959, 35mm, 111 min, color)

Room 106, 212 York Street

■ Thursday, October 14

Hidden Fortress (Kakushi-toride no san-akunin)

Directed by Kurosawa Akira (1958, 35mm, 139 min, black & white)

Room 106, 212 York Street

■ Thursday, November 18

Brave Records of the Sanada Clan (Sanada fuanroku)

Directed by Kato Tai (1963, 35mm, 100 minutes, color)

Print courtesy of the Japan Foundation

Whitney Humanities Center Auditorium, 53 Wall Street